NEUTRALISTS SANDS BAN BOUN OUM

ZURICH (UPI) - A "neutralist" spokesman for the Laos "Princes Summit Conference" said today westernbacked Premier Boun Oum "certainly will not be included" in the coalition government the meeting is trying to organize.

Former premier Souvanna Phouma, who still claims to be Laos' legal premier, made the statement to newsmen as spokesman for the conference

"Prince Boun Oum desires to withdraw from politics and he certainly will not be included in a coalition govern-ment," the neutralist leader claimed.

He spoke a few minutes after he, Boun Oum third rival prince of Laos—Communist-backed Pathet Lao-rebel leader Souphanouvong — ended their first working session at their princely summit."

Souvanna Phouma indicated the 90-minute session brought the rival princes close to agreement on an internal policy for the southeast Asian kingdom.

Decline and Fall?

THE LATEST RESORT TO SUMmitry has emphasized anew the reduced reduced stature of the United Nations. It is true that the Vienna talks were not "negotiations" was no bargaining and no effort to reach agreement—but they underlined the fact that for time now the chief decisions of the world have been made in meetings between heads of state far from the conference chambers of the United Nations building in New York. This cannot have been the intention of the founders of the UN when they met in San Fran-cisco in 1945 to draw up the Charter, Another influence has been the e of the so-called Afro-Asian states during the past few years. As these former colonies and protectorates achieved independence they have become United Nations members—each with a vote that can cancel out the single vote of any of the great powers.

This group is becoming so numerous that it is more than just a bloc to be wooed by the Eastern and Western leaders for its support in the Assembly. It is gaining a voting advantage that could ultimately disrupt the United Nations by driving great powers out of the UN The large nations could protest that vital decisions should not be made for them by small states which do not have the responsibility of carrying out their own plans.

Many of the new small states, too, have not yet shown the statesmanship necessary for a proper settlement of global problems; they could wield a power disproportionate to their importance.

divisive force in UN affairs has been the opposition of Russia. Ever since he appeared in the Assembly to bang his boot on his desk and attack the administration of Secretary-General Hammarskjold, Mr. Khrushchev has posed a serious threat to the United Nations' future.

Acting on his basic belief-a comparatively recent development —that no one man can be non-partisan, Mr. Khrushchev insists that Mr. Hammarskjold has discriminated against the Soviet Union and that the only workable system would be a three-man committee. It would represent East, West and neutral nations, and each member would hold a veto power. This would mean that the Communist

In fact it is as old as the North Atlantic Treaty of 1949 and an essential economic counterpart of that military alliance. The policy now advocated by Pearson grows directly out of NATO where its seeds were deliberately Under Mr. Pearson's insistence they Under Mr. Pearson's insistence they were planted by the Canadian government, of which he was foreign minister, against the strong skepticism of the United States. Article 2 of the treaty, known as the "Canadian Clause" and sponsored by Mr. Pearson, pledged the signatories to economic as well as a signatories to economic as well as a signatories to economic as well as a signatories. This must be an alarming development for the people of every tary co-operation, but that pledge was promptly forgotten by the other allies while they concentrated their efforts on re-armament.

The same theory of economic integrecognize that the structure raised recognize the structure raised recognized Communist countries. On this original agreement, with the use of naked force, To lose the common meeting they established a trade zone stretching from eastern Europe to the Pacific. Its strength, growth and danger are only now dawning upon the free world.

Later than the Russians, the Western Europeans grasped the need of economic integration, devised the Common Market of the Six, then the European Free Trade Association headed by Britain, and now are preparing to merge them.

The objective built into NATO at the start but long neglected re-appears in Europe to produce there the free world's most dynamic economy. But Europe, prosperous as it is, cannot hope to counterbalance the integrated world of Communism, even when the two European blocs are joined. A united Communist economy is winning the struggle of the world against a fractured West and will continue to win it until the West is united.

All this was foreseen by Mr. Pearson, but few others, from the day he inserted the "Canadian Clause" in the NATO

Social Progress

When it was submitted to Parliament the spring of 1949 he said it should used "to promote the social progress the Western world" as well as its military power. A few days later, in a New York speech, he warned that "the permanent importance of the treaty will depend in large measure on the extent which we are successful in using it to deepen and broaden economic and co-operation among free demo cratic states." While most statesmen were interested only in military weapons, he declared that NATO could not succeed if "we rely exclusively on the building of armed forces."

His hopes were disappointed. NATO ignored his advice and went on to build only armed forces. He was discouraged, ost alone, but not silenced. In scores of speeches at home and abroad he reiterated his warnings, year after year.

For example, at a meeting of state governors in Houston, Texas, in 1952, he said bluntly that the trading policies of the North Atlantic nations were weakening their economies and there-fore their defences and "it is in the vital interests of Canada and the United States to see to it that international trade, like the Atlantic ocean, becomes a unifying and strengthening, not a answer soon. dividing and weakening force." (Las

By 1953 he had concluded that if the oblem of expanded trade could not be solved "there is not much hope for the survival of collective political arrangements."

So far he had been a solitary voice the politics of America but things had begun to move in Europe. As soon as the plan for an economic community was broached here Mr. Pearson wel comed it in a London speech of April, 1956, not anticipating then that another government would bitterly oppose it in

He could warn Parliament, almos ery month, that NATO must perish if it did not become an economic as well as a military alliance but the Canadian government showed no interest in his plan for an Atlantic community, and no belief in the possible union of the Six and Seven.

Yet the project which he and the British Prime Minister regard as an historic opportunity, not likely to occur again, is regarded by the Canadian government only as a danger to be resisted.

That is the real issue between Mr. Pearson and the government, the inescapable question which Canada must answer soon.

It might be bad enough if I knew that the woman had a cystitis or inflammation of her bladder, or if she had a rare ulceration in it, or if she had the falling down of the bladder that is due an an old perineal tear which came when she was giving birth to a child.

Perhaps she has only nervousness due to e fact that her daughter's marriage quickly broke up and the girl is back home with a baby. Or, perhaps, my correspondent

"chronic urethritis grade i." This means a slight reddening of the urethra, or tube which carries the urine out of the bladder. The trouble with this condition is that usually the more one treats it the worse the woman gets.

Much of the disease appears to be due to nervousness, as is shown by the fact that occasionally one sees a strongly-built and husky woman with chronic urethritis grade i and no symptoms at all.

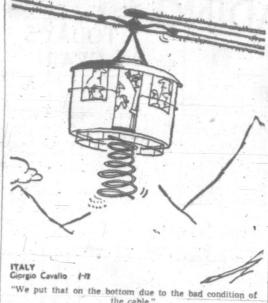

All I know is that I must not try to treat an "irritable bladder" by mail. If the woman has a bad cystocele—or "dropped bladder," I think she ought to have a repair operation, in which the bladder will be pushed up where it belongs. I have seen women "made over" by this operation, in the bladder will be pushed up where it belongs. I have seen women "made over" by this operation, in the bladder will be pushed up by this operation, when it has been well performed. Last week I urged a spry old lady of 70 to have the repair operation because, as I said, she might live until the age of 85, and 15 years is a long time to

A few mothers have asked what could be causing severe constipation in a child. In such cases it would be wise to have an Xray study made of the child's colon (large bowel) to see if it is much enlarged. There is a rare disease, called magacolon or Hirsch-prung's disease in which the colon becomes six inches or more in diameter, and is very hard to empty. The mother has to keep giving the child large enemas.

Many years ago I prophesied, from my search work on animals, that the most robable cause of this disease would be a congenital absence of the nerves that run in the wall of the rectum, and on searching through the literature, I found in an Italian medical journal a report by Dalla Valle of two children with this disease, and sure enough, he had found that the nerves in the lower part of the colon were not developed. Since then, this finding has been confirmed by a number of men; and Dr. Ovar Swenson, of Boston, has found that the colon tends to empty when the malfunctioning segment is removed surgically.

Constipation can be severe in highly neurotics children and adults. In persons born to be nervous something can be wrong with the nervous mechanisms that empty

Pacific Market Proposals Made

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (CP) - The political correspondent of the Auckland Star mentions the pos-sibility of Canada, Australia and New Zealand forming a Pacific Common Market if Britain decides to join the European Common Market.

European Common Market.

The newspaper story says many people in Wellington, the capital, feel "New Zealand and Australia will look to a lead from Canada, as senior British dominion, to pick up the remaining threads of the Commonwealth if Britain enters the European Common Market".

a common policy and closer political association with the United States may eventually hold the only remaining process of security for New Zealand," the story says.

New Zealand has given only limited support to Prime Minister Diefenbaker's idea for a Commonwealth conference at this stage as some New Zealand quarters consider Commonwealth interest in possible British entering into the Common Market is too diverse for a full Commonwealth meeting.

LONDON, (CP) — Two British newspapers view the forthcoming visit of Trade Minister George Hees to Australia and attempt to counter trade losses that could result if Britain joined the European Common Market. "Dashing Mr. Hees will go selling," says the headline of the right-wing Daily Express. The Daily Herald reports that Canada is trying to personal a full Commonwealth meeting. ## Gold Price Hint

WASHINGTON (CP)— President Kennedy was advised today consideration may have to be given to re-vising the official price of gold sometime in the future if other means of boosting world monetary reserves fail.

In a 300-page study of the United States economy, the 20-member private commission on money and credit said ar gument against an increase in the official price of $35 an ounce "at this time counsel against such a step."

"At some future date, if al-

Keep 'String' On Exported B.C. Power

VANCOUVER (CP) - The western region president of the Canadian Institute of Power Engineers says export of power to the United States is all right if there is firm sion to recapture it.

E. Gibson of Winnipeg said in an interview here ex port of B.C. hydro without "strings attached" would tighten the United States eco-

Mr. Gibson, here for a west regional conference of the institute, said if power is exported to the U.S. now the prov-ince may be faced with short-

"With B.C. power the U.S. will be expanding its industries. Canada will need all available power to provide for its future industrial growth.

Shell test drivers add a "fifth wheel" to their cars for precise distance measurement during mileage tests. It helps them record performance to a decimal point.

Shell reveals how to increase your car's mileage up to 30 extra miles per tankful

Here are some tips from Shell's experts on how to get maximum mileage from your car. If you practice these good driving habits-and if you use today's Super Shell, with 9 ingredients for top performance—you may well save a pretty penny on gasoline bills.

CHELL scientists spend much of their working lives figuring out how to get the most mileage out of a gallon of gasoline. Here are some of the things they've learned.

1. Don't race a cold engine. When your engine is cold, it uses up more fuel. You're also in danger of underlubrication. You pay for this in greater engine wear. (A properly operating thermostat assures a full warm-upsaving fuel and wear.)

NOTE: Today's Super Shell has fast warm-up ingredients to save you gasoline. And Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil moves freely even when cold—saves fuel and reduces engine wear.

2. Use a light touch with the accelerator. Tromping down on the pedal is an expensive habit. Starting up, it holds your automatic transmission in a lower "gear" longer. This makes the engine turn faster, wasting fuel.

Under way, uneven pedal pressure is costly, too. Instead, feed just enough fuel to maintain even speed,

3. Drive "ahead of your car." Watch for slowing traffic and red lights as far ahead as you can see. You'll be able to coast up to the stopping cars, instead of braking heavily when you get there.

Your savings here will not only be in fuel, but also in brake linings and tires.

4. Don't let fuel costs creep up at the stop light. If your car "creeps" when idling with the automatic transmission engaged, have your engine idle speed adjusted. You may save plenty. And, if you drive a stick shift, remember that pumping the accelerator won't change the light. It only pulls your gasoline gauge down.

5. Don't indulge in jack rabbit starts. Racing starts are fine on race tracksbut the drivers are lucky to get 6 miles

You can earn many a free mile by making a habit of slow, steady accelera-

NOTE: One thing you can't do anything about is the weather. Yet it's interesting to know that air resistance at high car speed is the biggest single drain on power. It increases approximately as the cube of the vehicle speed. Driving into strong headwinds will cause an unavoidable mileage penalty. Even fox tails on aerials may cost you gasoline.

6. Check tire pressure-regularly. Keep tires properly inflated. Underinflated tires increase drag and friction *TRADEMARK FOR SHELL'S UNIQUE GASOLINE ADDITIVE DEVELOPED BY-SHELL RESEARCH. PATENTED 1955. and cut mileage. Not to mention extra tread wear.

NOTE: Tire pressures build up during a long run. Don't let air out to bring the pressure down-it makes the tires run even hotter. Check cool tires only.

7. Check for dragging brakes. Have your Shell dealer check for wheel drag next time you're in for a lubrication. If brakes drag, you pay for it every mile

8. Get these fuel-saving adjustments for top performance. If spark timing is off, for example, you pay for it in wasted gasoline and possible engine damage. Have the compression checked-it can reveal power-wasting valve and ring conditions. There are other essential adjustments:

A. Keep your spark plugs at peak efficiency. Use Super Shell gasoline with TCP* additive to give them extra life. When electrodes wear beyond repair, replace the

B. Adjust carburetor for correct airfuel mixture and proper idle speed.

C. Have automatic choke checked for correct operation. Unnecessary choking wastes gasoline.

D. Clean or replace filters for air, fuel, oil as manufacturer recom-

E. Tighten fuel line connections.

F. Have automatic transmission or clutch checked regularly. Slippage in either puts good mileage on the skids.

9. Get regular oil changes and lubrication-including transmission and differential. Your Shell dealer knows what to do. He has the finest equipment and lubricants to do it with. Your car will last longer. Your gasoline will

10. Show this advertisement to everyone who drives your car-especially if you pay their gasoline bills. Insist that they stop for service at the Shell sign.

While we can't guarantee 30 extra miles per tankful, the closer these suggestions are followed the better your mileage will be.

To start off right, fill up with today's Super Shell. Its nine ingredients mean top performance.

The 9 ingredients in today's Super Shell-and what they do to give your car top performance.

#1 is TCP for restored power, added mileage and extended plug-life.

#2 is "cat-cracked" gasoline for power

#3 is butane for quick starts at all times

#4 is heavy alkanes for knock-tree power at all speeds.

Wednesday is the shortest night of the year. It could also be one of the darkest for Victoria's boxla boys because this is the week of decision for the Vics in the Inter-City Lacrosse League race.

Nearing the halfway point in the league schedule, the Vics are still without a victory in 13 outings. But Nanaimo, the club Victoria must beat out in order to grab a playoff spot, hasn't been having a winger Lou Jankowski, of Calgary Stampeders, who set the Coaltowares who best out of the coaltowares who best out a double win for coach Arnie Ferguson's squad would trim the margin to three points.

DEER DEBATE CARDED AT GAME CLUB TONIGHT

One of the best-attended meetings of the year is expected tonight when members of the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association gather at their Goldstream clubhouse.

Stirring interest among members is the scheduled debate on methods of deer conservation. Matching words and knowledge in the debate will be the members of the club's deer panel, who have in the past opposed the shooting of does and fawns, and regional game biologist John Bandy, who believes the deer population is too high in most Vancouver Island areas and favors a longer antieriess deer season.

Revived 'Picnic' Big Hit

Three Saanich farms were visited Saturday by 160 members and guests when the B.C. Jersey Breeders' Club revived its annual field day "picnic."

It was the first get-together of this kind in 20 years and from the enthusiasm shown the Jersey farmers will be "picnicking" annually from now on.

There was good representa tion from the mainland headed by Bill Savage of Ladner, president of the Canadian Jersey Breeders' Club.

Host clubs were the Saanich and Cowichan branches of the national association headed by Gordon Rendle, Tanner Road, and John Hulbert, Cowichan. PICTURE-BOOK

The field day started at the north Saanich farm of Arthur Aylard and sons where their fine herd was inspected in picture-book surroundings. Next stop was the Dogwood Jersey Farm of Pat Hoole on Oldfield Road where more of western Canada's finest Jer-seys were interrupted in their grazing by the "postmen holi-

It was here that luncheon was served in the out-of-doors by the Saanich farmers' wives nd members of the Saanich 4 H Jersey Club. Among thos asisting at the serving table was Mrs. W. C. Woodward of Woodwyn Farms, East Saanich, widow of the late lieuten ant-governor of B.C.

INFORMAL -

As guests at the luncheon and Hoole farm inspection was Lieut. Gov. George Pearkes, VC, who appeared to enjoy being "just one of the crowd" in the pleasantly informal atmosphere of the picnic.

In the afternoon some of the dens while husbands went on to the farm of Gordon Rendle to see another top herd. A tea break was enjoyed here with the Cowichan Jersey Club serving strawberries and

Highlight Your Coiffure With Cleopatra Brooch By PENNY SAVER

Today's fashion emphasis—we cannot escape it—is firmly on the hair-do. And who were more worldly-wise in the ways of the waves than the Egyptians: If you too would bring shades of old Nile into your life, complete your coiffure with a "Cleopatra clip."

These dainty pearl and shipetone "family pearl"

These dainty pearl and rhinestone floral sprays are these dainty pearl and rainestone floral sprays are shaped on either gold or silvet wire and every design seems to be one-of-a-kind. The most delicate is light enough to nestle on that equivocal kiss curl of yours, and make an evening into an occasion. Clips are priced at 79c and $1.

Another very sophisticated accessory note is the three, four or five-strand necklace to fill in, and prettily complement the portrait collar. Necklace and earning sets that Penny are priced at $1.95, and come in block colors of turquoise,

For the very young lady, what could be more fitting than a white or pink raffia straw purse?

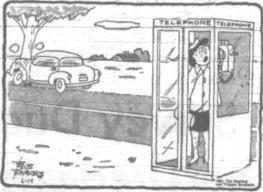

These little charmers feature "petit point" designs and pictures. One I particularly liked is decorated with two succulent strawberries of padded red velvet. Made in Japan, bags are selling at 98c.

Well, that heat wave we had on Friday certainly went right to Penny's little head, as you know if you phoned to discover where on earth she had found luscious peeled shrimp at 50c a pound! If you were one of those who nearly called but didn't, let me set your mind at ease. The shrimp were 50c for ¼ pound. And they were luscious!

We're proud of our Billion Dollar Company

This month Manufacturers Life became the second Canadian life insurance company to reach the one billion dollar mark in assets. But such a milestone in growth has meaning only in terms of human endeavour, of goals and accomplishments, of principles and dedication to them.

The part played in this success story by our policyowners is an excellent illustration. These are the men and women whose basic human desire for financial security for their families and themselves led to the purchase of life insurance in this Company. Our assets are their savings. We are deeply conscious of the trust placed in us to invest these funds soundly and profitably on their behalf and later to make them available in times of emergency or need.

We are sure they share with us the pride of being associated with a billion dollar company.

Western RED CEDAR Bevel SIDING

CHEK on Sports Debuts at 6.30; 'Luck of Ginger Coffey' at 9.30

By PHIL LEE Times TV Editor

ALTHOUGH the layman had little hope of under 'Keystone" clear kiln-dried siding is the finest available—a quality material for all applications where perfection is required.

standing much of what transpired on Camera Canada's hour-long documentary, "The Measure of Man," Friday night, he couldn't help but be impressed by the attempts being made by man to fathom the mind of man.

Certainly one saw reason for hoping that even-

Certainly one saw reason for hoping that eventually through such research mental illness can be treated on the same plane that physical illnesses are treated now. One can even foresee the day when treatment of the mind can aid the retarded, sharpen the dull and possibly "brain-wash" the criminal mind. Produced by Norman Caton, introduced by Bruce Hutchison, editor of the Victoria Daily Times, and narrated in parts by Dr. Donald Ivey of the University of Toronto, "The Measure of Man" demonstrated various experiments in which human guinea pige reacted to tests while under certain stresses. Each was interesting is free from pitch, takes and holds stains, paints in itself even though its application to this vast study and enamels excellently, of the hidden mysteries of the mind was obscure.

and is superior for gluing.

Possibly one of the most illuminating parts of the Because of these qualities, film dealt with the coverage of the World Psychiatric Western red cedar is escape on the world raychiatre. Western red cedar is escapecially adaptable for use About 3,000 experts in the field of psychiatry were as bevel siding for quality homes.

Shrum Critical Of Perrault On Power

VANCOUVER (CP) - B.C. Energy Board chairman Dr. Gordon Shrum thinks B.C. Liberal leader Ray Perrault is confused about power export. He said Mr. Perrault was confused on questions of cur-rent and future costs of producing power and the dump-ing of Columbia waters over U.S. dams during high runoff peaks,

Mr. Perrault this week
called for use of the power for B.C. development instead of export. He claimed the U.S. is currently pumping $30,000, 000 worth of two-mill power over dams south of the border. The Energy Board chairman said water currently being pumped over U.S. dams at peak periods would be saved for power generation by devel-opment of the Columbia.

American Republican Army Opens Fire

Two Americans, one a bearded, self-styled revolut ary, were arrested and arraigned Sunday on charges of sabotag-ing two microwave towers and a relay station in Utah and Nevada last May 28 in an attempt to destroy big business institutions.

Bernard Jerome Brous, 51, who said he was the leader of the "American Republican Army," and Dale Chris Jensen, 33, were arrested by Mexico authorities on a heavily armed yacht anchored at Ensenada, Mexico, 85 miles south of the Mexico-California

The men were turned over to agents of the Federal Bu-reau- of Investigation at the border, taken to the federal building here and arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Betty Marshall Graydon.

Also picked up by Mexico authorities and transported here by the FBI were Brous' wife, Minnie, 40, and Robert Gerald Bortoli, 28, Reno, Nev.

were held for questioning.

The complaint charged Brous and Jensen with only one of the bombings and mentioned "other unknown persons," in-dicating more arrests in the case were probable. The men were charged with the explosion at Wendover, Utah, No mention was made of the other two bombings the same day.

Brous, a former New York realtor, with a gray, Castrotype beard, said the bombings constituted "the first frontal move by the American Republican Army."

Jensen told a newspaperman that he used an "eight-hour time bomb" which was planted well ahead of the actual explosions and triggered by an alarm clock mechanism when he was miles away. He seemed proud of the work.

Jensen said he'did it because

"We will gain this power by political, not violent means," Brous said.

He said "hate for the privately-owned utility com-panies and a scare" were the reasons for blowing up the towers.

PARKING Free Customer Parking in Our Another thing a good father takes time out for is a FAMILY SECURITY CHECK-UP

If it isn't a ball game it's a parade, or a picnic. It takes time to be a good father.

But being a good father also calls for time out-for only an hour or so-to make sure that the financial provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend. Are you sure your family will be cared for no matter what?

Now, Metropolitan, the company you look to for authoritative information on physical health, offers you a way to check your financial health-the Family Security Check-Up.

More than an interview-a service

Your Metropolitan representative has been trained in Metropolitan's own schools and is qualified by solid experience to bring you this service. He is equipped with scientifically designed charts and tables that show you, in black and white, exactly where you stand.

Call your Metropolitan man for a Family Security Check-Up. There's no obligation-except to those you love.

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES FOR YOU

With the help of your Metropolitan man-

1. You check the facts: your pension plan, your home, your life insurance, your savings and other assets. You may be surprised to learn how much you're worth.

2. You weigh your responsibilities: mortgage or rent payments, education, retirement, accident and sickness emergencies; how much it would cost your family to live

3. You learn where you stand. You determine your weak and strong points... whether the provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend. You get the facts in front of you

4. You plan for the future. Based on these facts, you decide what action, if any, may be needed to give you a family security plan tailor-made to your own needs and ambitions -one which makes good sense for you.
